Cornell Recreation Connection

Providing recreational events for the Cornell community

The CRC's mission is to encourage camaraderie and the Cornell spirit among members of the community - staff, faculty, and retirees - by providing social experiences and recreational events.

New York City Day Trips

CRC offers discounted day trips to New York City each month through Swarthout Coaches. Round trip bus fare is just $54 per person for Cornell employees and their guests.

Contact Swarthout Coaches directly to make a reservation. You will need to provide your Cornell NetID and payment at time of reservation. Seats are assigned and filled from front to back of the bus as payment is received. You will receive confirmation by email, which will also be your boarding pass for the trip - please be sure to bring a printout of the confirmation email on the day of travel.

CRC Park Details

- Please inquire for a discounted rate for groups of 50 or less.
- The pavilion seats up to 130 people and offers a walk-in refrigerator. We are introducing some additional “porch” chair seating at the park this year for those who may not be comfortable in a folding chair all day.
- Next to the pavilion is a large covered area for barbequing. There are also restrooms adjacent to the pavilion. Plenty of room outdoors provides space for games or a tent for additional seating.

Get Involved with CRC

There are two ways to get involved with the Cornell Recreation Connection:

- Join the Recreation Committee, which plans trips and events. The team meets monthly and aims to plan three on-campus events per year. We need people to help decide what type of events we will offer, co-chairs for each event, and volunteers to help at events. Get in on the ground floor and share your ideas. Contact Cheryl McGraw, 255-7565 for details.
 - Sign up for CRC's email list to get event and trip notifications as they are updated.
