Cornell Takes a Stand Against Domestic Violence

Thursday, October 20, 2022

Cornell recognizes Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM) and is participating in New York State's “Go Purple Day” on Thursday, October 20th.
Join us in taking a stand

- Wear purple on Thursday, October 20
- Pledge to stand against DV by completing this Pledge Form and sharing it with others
- Download the Zoom background and use it throughout the month
- Give to the Cornell Employee Emergency CARE Fund which offers financial support to employees in crisis situations
- Bookmark Cornell’s Domestic Violence Resource Page. Managers are also encouraged to review Cornell’s Guide to Domestic Violence at the Workplace
- Share how you took a stand by sending photos, pledge statements, etc. that you are comfortable being posted publicly to worklife@cornell.edu
There are many ways an individual and/or an office can show support. To share ideas and opportunities, please contact Work/Life in Human Resources.

IMPORTANT: Prioritize your physical and emotional wellbeing when considering if and how you would like to get involved. Being sensitive to DV in the workplace also includes respecting others who may not be willing or able to engage on this topic.

Resources

- Zoom Background
- Facebook Post Graphic
- Twitter Post Graphic

- Domestic Violence Resources for Cornell Employees
- Supervisor's Guide To Domestic Violence in the Workplace

- Advocacy Center of Tompkins County - actompkins.org & 24/7 Hotline 607-277-5000
- NYS Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence - opdv.ny.gov
- National Resource Center of Domestic Violence - nrcdv.org

Videos - Wellbeing at Work

- Resources at Work
- Stigma of Domestic Violence
- Prevalence of Domestic Violence
- Title IX Reporting

[ Domestic Violence Resources for Cornell Employees ]