Working at Cornell

Working Remotely

With the COVID-19 pandemic still posing a threat to public health, we need to continue limiting the number of people physically on campus to effectively achieve social distancing. Having employees continue to work remotely to fulfill some or all of their work responsibilities is critical to our continued efforts to reduce density on campus in order to reduce the potential spread of the COVID-19 virus.

REMOTE WORK TIP SHEETS:  For Everyone  |  For Managers  |  For Families  |  For Technology

Equipment & Workspace

Standard Equipment, Office Supplies, Ergonomics

Home Office

Testing
Supplemental Testing is available for remote employees

Testing Guidance

![Shield Icon]

Expectations

University Policies, Security, Work Hours, Time Off

![People on Tablet]

Managing Remote Teams

Focus on Outcomes, Build Trust, Communicate Effectively, Increase Transparency, Support Your Team, Lead Equitably

![Hand Using Tablet]

Managing Others

Working Outside New York State

Temporary Arrangements, Changing Permanent Residence, New Hires, Working From Another Country

![Global Icon]

Outside NYS
Support & Self Care

Wellbeing Resources, Parenting and Caregiving Information, Benefits

Resources