Flexible Work

Core Principles

Flexible work at Cornell is guided by a core set of principles.

Principles

Types of Arrangements

Alternative work schedules, hybrid and remote work agreements, compressed work schedules, job sharing, and occasional use flexibility

Learn more
Request a Flexible Work Arrangement

Start the request process by using this form to begin a dialogue with your supervisor

Request Form

Employee Expectations

University Policies, Security, Work Hours, Time Off

Expectations

Equipment & Workspace

Standard Equipment, Office Supplies, Ergonomics

Home Office

Managing Remote Teams
Managing Remote Teams

Focus on Outcomes, Build Trust, Communicate Effectively, Increase Transparency, Support Your Team, Lead Equitably

Managing Others

Working Outside New York State

Temporary Arrangements, Changing Permanent Residence, New Hires, Working From Another Country

Outside NYS

Support & Self Care

Wellbeing Resources, Parenting and Caregiving Information, Benefits

Resources

COVID-19 Workplace Guidance

More on-campus operations will return to normal over the coming months in anticipation of a fully in-person fall semester beginning in August.

COVID-19 Guidance