

Aetna International for Business Travel

Maintain your healthcare coverage abroad when traveling on Cornell University-approved business.

The endowed health plans administered by Aetna on the Ithaca campus and the health plans for the Weill Cornell Medicine and NYC Tech campuses provide enhanced coverage for international travel.

Travel Insurance

International travelers have coverage for Medical Evacuation, Repatriation of Remains, Trip Interruption, Lost Checked-in Luggage, and Return of Personal Belongings.

WorldAware provides a personal and portable service, offering invaluable safety and safety advice and services to members. Registration for WorldAware is not necessary in order to utilize the evacuation benefit. However, you may choose to pre-register to have access to security alerts, safety tips, or email and text alerts.

- Trip Interruption: Up to $2,000 USD per policy period.
- Lost Checked in Luggage: Up to $1,000 USD per policy period
- Return of Personal Belongings: Up to $500

Medical Coverage

International travelers currently covered on an Aetna plan can access help for emergency medical attention through Aetna WorldTraveler. Aetna WorldTraveler communicates in over 30 languages; has five regional offices worldwide; and offers 24/7 live phone access anywhere in the world. Care and Response Excellence (CARE) Team manages care until return safely home.

The insurance plan includes dependents currently covered by the endowed Aetna plan who travel with the faculty or staff member. The policy even remains in force for vacation time that the traveler and family may schedule while abroad, so long as the vacation time is appended to an approved business trip.

Your regular Aetna health plan provides urgent, non-urgent, and routine and medically necessary services while you are abroad. If you need medical attention while traveling internationally (or if you are not on University business), you will need to pay for services out-of-pocket and submit a claim form (along with itemized receipts) once you return to the United States.
