

Education Benefits

At Cornell, learning never stops.

Employee Education

Commit to one course or get your degree. The time commitment is up to you. Cornell helps you grow your education and your career at your own pace.

- Employee Degree Program
- Part-Time Study \(formerly Extramural Study\)
- Tuition Aid
- Tax Credits
- Staff Graduate Reception
- Community Learning and Service Partnership \(CLASP\)

Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) Program

The PSLF Program forgives the remaining balance on Direct Loans if you meet certain requirements. As an employer, Cornell meets the requisite of being a “qualifying employer” in that it is a not-for-profit organization, tax exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the IRS. HR Services & Transitions Center can authorize the “Employment Certification Form” attesting the employer information. Visit the website for information on application guidelines and contact information should you have additional questions about qualifying.

Dependent Education

Whether your children are in diapers or about to enter college for the first time, Cornell offers programs to help you prepare financially including scholarships and college savings programs.

- NY's 529 College Saving Program
 - Cornell Children's Tuition Scholarship
 - Tax Credits
-