

Financial Assistance

Cornell provides a number of financial resources to assist faculty and staff.

► Adoption Assistance Program

Reimburses eligible employees for qualified adoption expenses.

► Child Care Grant Program

Apply to receive additional money to spend toward qualifying child care costs.

► Dependent Care Reimbursement Account

This flexible spending account benefit helps you reduce your out-of-pocket expenses by taking advantage of a tax break when paying for dependent care services covered under the program.

► Faculty Dependent Care Travel Fund

Offers tenure track and tenured faculty up to $1,000 per academic year in dependent-care expenses incurred while traveling for work.

► Educational Funding

for you and your family: From tuition reimbursement for employees to scholarships for Children, Cornell offers a wealth of financial assistance for education.

► Emergency CARE Fund

Provides financial assistance to staff who have experienced an unanticipated, emergency-related financial hardship.
