E-lists

Stay up to date with info you want.

These e-lists can either be interactive or informational. The interactive e-lists allow subscribers to post messages to the lists; the informational e-lists only allow postings from list administrators.

- How to subscribe to an e-list

Adult Caregiving

- elder-L: An interactive e-list for Cornell University caregivers and elders.
- Elder/Adult Care Newsletter: A monthly newsletter to learn about on- and off-campus activities, events, services, and articles of interest to Cornell faculty, staff, students, and retirees regarding elder/adult care and caregiving.

Wellbeing

- wellness-L: An informational e-list which provides a weekly update on upcoming Wellness Program offerings.
News and University Updates

- sustainablecampus-L: A newsblast on Cornell Sustainable Campus
- specialconditions-L: An electronic mailing list that distributes notification of university operating status and closings, road closures, construction delays, or other unusual events on campus.
- http://cuinfo.cornell.edu/: “Your Cornell: Faculty & Staff News” is a weekly e-newsletter sent to all faculty and staff.

Career Development

- Workforce Development-L: Notifications about career and leadership development workshops and training
- IT-Training-L: Receive training announcements about upcoming technical courses provided at Cornell
- Job Postings: receive notifications about career opportunities at Cornell University.

Community

- Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County: “Community Toolbox” courses and announcements; many popular gardening, parenting, and other workshops.

Support Groups

- cancersupport-L: An informational e-list that provides information and support related to cancer.

Parents and Prospective Parents

- Cornell Parenting E-News: Sign up to receive a newsletter about Cornell-sponsored events, workshops, and activities that are parenting-related or family-friendly to attend.
- adoption-L: An interactive e-list for current and prospective adoptive parents.
- parents-K12-L: An interactive e-list related to parenting school-aged children (no classifieds permitted).
- parents-undersix-L: An interactive e-list related to parenting children under the age of six (no classifieds permitted).
- parents-classifieds-L: An e-list to buy, sell, or exchange child-related items (restrictions apply, see guidelines).
- lactation-L: An interactive e-list for nursing mothers at Cornell University.
- lbgtfamilies-L: An interactive e-list which distributes information and resources for Cornell University parents.
- students-with-kids-L: An e-list which distributes information and resources for Cornell University student parents.
- specialneeds-L: An interactive e-list for Cornell University families with children that have special needs.
- school-closing-L: An informational e-list which alerts parents of local school closings. Once you subscribe, you will get an e-mail message with the name of the closed school in the subject line. If your children are not in that school, please disregard the message. Please do not call the schools.

School-closing-L Participating Schools

1. Candor Central School District
2. Cincinnatus Central School
3. Cortland City School District
4. Dryden Central School District
5. Elmira/Horseheads School
6. Groton Central School District
7. Homer School District
8. Immaculate Conception School
9. Ithaca City School District
10. Ithaca Community Childcare Center (IC3)
11. Lansing Central School District
12. Marathon Central School
13. Moravia Central School District
14. Newark Valley Central School District
15. Newfield School District
16. New Roots Charter School
17. Odessa-Montour School District
18. South Seneca Central School District
19. Southern Cayuga Central School District
20. Spencer-VanEtten School District
21. Trumansburg School District
22. Watkins Glen Central School District
23. Whitney Point School District