

Family Life Resources for Faculty

At Cornell, your family matters.

Cornell offers an array of services, programs, and events to support you in caring for your family.

Child Care

Work/Life consultant: Looking for child care or summer camp options? Contact the university's work/life consultant: worklife@cornell.edu. The work/life consultant helps faculty and academic staff assess their needs and identify formal and informal options.

The Cornell Child Care Grant Program provides financial assistance to benefits-eligible faculty and staff. The application period occurs during late summer/early fall.

The Cornell Child Care Center serves children ages 6 weeks to 5 years of age. Hours are 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., and follow the university calendar. The center is accredited and is managed by Bright Horizons Family Solutions. The center is located at 150 Pleasant Grove Road. Contact (607) 255-1010.

Emergency back-up child care is offered at the Cornell Child Care Center for children and infants up to 5 years of age. Employees and students may access this care in the event their regular providers are not available. Contact the CCC for fees and availability.

UCNS: A cooperative play-based nursery school for children ages 3-5 years old. Cornell families receive enrollment priority and a sliding fee scale is available.

The Faculty Dependent Care Travel Fund: provides financial assistance for qualified dependent-care expenses incurred by tenure track and tenured faculty while traveling for professional reasons.

Other programs: A variety of on-campus academic and sports summer camp programs are also available to children of employees.

Cornell Academic Parental Leave

Provides up to one semester of partial relief with full pay for a primary or coequal care-giving parent. Untenured faculty who become a parent by birth or adoption are also granted an automatic extension of the tenure clock for one year. Contact your local HR representative.

Work/Life consultant: Are you providing care to an aging parent or relative? Contact the university's work/life consultant at worklife@cornell.edu. The work/life consultant assists employees with questions on elder or adult care issues and helps them find on and off-campus resources and support.

The Caregiver Support & Education Network: meets monthly on-campus and provides a forum for caregivers to build connections and find additional support. In addition to the network, free workshops on a variety of caregiving topics are available throughout the year.

Lactation Support

The university provides lactation support in a variety of ways. Time away from work for the purpose of pumping/expressing milk is available, as well as over forty dedicated spaces for pumping/expressing milk. Each semester a "Preparing for Baby" education series is offered on campus, free of charge, and includes workshops on lactation. Breast pumps and supplies are covered under the health insurance programs. Consultations are available for those seeking guidance on breastfeeding support policies and resources.
