

Which retirement plan option is right for you?

What you need to know about your choices under the Cornell University Tax-Deferred Annuity Plan

To help give you more choice and flexibility in pursuing your retirement, TIAA offers you a choice of account types—or “contracts”—under the Cornell University Tax-Deferred Annuity Plan. Each of these contracts has different features designed to appeal to diverse types of investors.

A TIAA Financial Consultant can look at your present financial outlook, long-term goals, time to retirement, and tolerance for investment risk to help you choose the contract option that makes sense for you. In addition, your Financial Consultant can also help you select a suitable investment mix.
