Cornell Retirees Association (CRA)
All Cornell employees (staff and faculty) automatically become members of the Cornell Retirees Association upon retirement. Membership is voluntary and there are no annual dues. Retirees and their spouses/partners are encouraged to participate.

CRA offers retirees volunteer opportunities such as Cornell Retirees Volunteering in Schools (CRVIS) and the Cornell Jack Lewis Visitors Program (in area nursing homes), holds annual social events including luncheons and a barbecue, publishes a newsletter three times a year, and provides a liaison with the university on important retiree issues. For more information, contact the CRA desk at 101 Day Hall, (607) 255-0388, e-mail <cornellretirees@cornell.edu> or visit <www.ohr.cornell.edu/CRA.html>.

Cornell Association of Professors Emeriti (CAPE)
The Cornell Association of Professors Emeriti provides professional and social resources for retired faculty. A subset of the benefits advocated by CAPE is published in “Perquisites and Privileges” and is available through the CAPE office or by going to the CAPE website at <http://www.emeritus.cornell.edu>. Information on volunteer programs, a quarterly newsletter, lecture series, computer workshops and monthly roundtable is also available on this site. For more information, contact the CAPE office at 431 Day Hall, (607) 255-6608 or e-mail <cape@cornell.edu>.

Wellness Program for Health and Fitness
The Cornell University Wellness Program provides retired Cornell employees and their spouses/partners with diverse opportunities that foster joy, balance, and well-being.

Wellness membership: Includes access to all fitness centers, pools, and group exercise classes such as aerobics, water aerobics, tai chi, and yoga. Members may schedule individual sessions, including fitness consultations, fitness testing, and nutrition counseling. Fee: $175 per year per member. (Emeritus professors: contact the Wellness Program directly for additional information.)

A written medical clearance note from your primary care physician is required. For more information including outreach programming for non-members, contact the Wellness Program office at (607) 255-3886 or visit <http://wellness.cornell.edu>.

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program (FSAP)
As a retiree, you and your dependents continue to remain eligible to receive free assessment, counseling and referral under the FSAP. Contact the FSAP at 1-800-327-2255, <fsap@cornell.edu>, 160 Day Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853.

Cornell Children’s Tuition Scholarship (CCTS)
Individuals who retire at age 55 or older with ten or more years of service retain the same CCTS privileges they had as active faculty or staff members. Call Benefit Services at (607) 255-3936 for more information.

Note: Cornell offers a wide variety of benefits and programs to its employees. The information in this brochure highlights some of the programs and opportunities available after you retire. However, this is not inclusive of everything available for retirees and is only a sampling of programs.

For retiree benefits information, contact Benefit Services at (607) 255-3936.
Other Opportunities to Connect
On-campus events and many one-day motorcoach trips provide retirees and their spouses/partners continued connection with the Cornell community. Retirees are encouraged to get involved in committees and volunteer at events. To hear about upcoming events and trips as they are announced, ask to be added to the events/trips e-mail list by contacting the Employee Outreach Desk at 130 Day Hall, (607) 255-7565.

Identification Cards
Retirees need to obtain an identifi cation card from the University Registrar at B7 Day Hall. For information, call (607) 255-4232. If you have 25 years of credited service or are an emeritus professor, come fi rst to 130 Day Hall and obtain verifi cation of this status so that your card will be marked accordingly. No appointment is necessary.

Computer Access
For information on computer access, call the CIT Contact Center at (607) 255-8990 or e-mail <helpdesk@cornell.edu>.

CFCU Community Credit Union
As a retiree, you can remain a member of the CFCU Community Credit Union with the same privileges as an active employee. For more information, call (607) 257-8500.

Retiree Transit and Parking Privileges
Call Cornell Commuter and Parking Services at (607) 255-PARK (255-4600) for information on transit and parking privileges for retirees.

Taking Courses at Cornell
Retirees are eligible to enroll in up to six credit hours per semester at no charge. You may enroll through Continuing Education and Summer Sessions in B-20 Day Hall, (607) 255-4987, with the permission of the course instructor and a representative of Benefit Services.

Cornell’s Adult University offers fabulous on-campus non-credit summer seminars and workshops, travel programs in the U.S. and abroad, and on-line educational programs for Cornell alumni, friends, and families. For information on all CAU programs, call (607) 255-6260, e-mail <cauinfo@cornell.edu>, or visit the CAU Web site at <www.sce.cornell.edu/cau>. To register for CyberTower, log on to <http://cybertower.cornell.edu>.

For Cornell Plantations workshops, call (607) 255-2400. For School of Industrial and Labor Relations workshops call (607) 255-9298.

Libraries
As a Cornell retiree you are entitled to full Cornell University Library privileges. Your retiree I.D. is your library card. Notices from the library will be sent by e-mail to your Cornell NetID unless you make other arrangements with the library. You can do this at the Public Services Offi ce, 116 Olin Library, by e-mail: <libpublicservices@cornell.edu> or by phone (607) 255-5069.

Intercollegiate Athletics and Athletic Facilities
Emeritus professors or retirees with 25 years of service are offered two tickets to all athletic contests except Men’s Ice Hockey and post-season contests. All other retirees with 10 to 24 years of service to the university continue to be eligible for the same privileges they enjoyed when they were employed. All tickets can be obtained at the Athletic Ticket Office, Bartels Hall, by appearing in person and showing a retiree I.D. card. All retirees could be eligible for certain other discounted senior citizen tickets.

Contact the Ticket Office at (607) 255-4247 for more information. Athletic facilities that continue to be available to all retirees are: Lynah Rink: Call (607) 255-3793 for more information.

Robert Trent Jones Golf Course: For more information, call (607) 254-6531.

Reis Tennis Facility: For more information, call (607) 272-0037.

Helen Newman Hall Bowling Center: Cornell retirees receive a discount on open bowling rates, and the opportunity to join other retirees for regular bowling. For more information, call (607) 255-4200.

Facilities and Events
Willard Straight Hall, Appel Commons, Noyes and Robert Purcell Community Centers: Retirees are welcome to use general facilities and programs free of charge, except for some specialized services which require a membership.

Concert tickets or season tickets can be purchased on-line at <www.cornellconcertseries.com> or call Cornell Concert Series, (607) 255-5144.

The Music Department sponsors many performances by individuals, ensembles, and chamber groups, as well as faculty and student recitals, performances by visiting groups, and various choral organizations on campus. Contact the Music Department at (607) 255-4097 for more information.

The Department of Theatre, Film and Dance presents plays throughout the year, which often include guest artists as well as students, faculty, and staff. For audition information, season and individual tickets, contact the University Theatre Box Office, (607) 254-2700 or <theatre@cornell.edu>. Senior citizen tickets may be available.

Cornell Cinema offers close to 300 different films/videos each year. Except for special offerings, tickets for senior citizens are discounted. Contact the box offi ces, 104 and 106 Willard Straight Hall, (607) 255-3522.

Cornell Newspapers
The Cornell community newspaper, Pawprint, helps retirees keep in touch with university news, events, and activities. Find free copies of Pawprint in buildings on campus or on the web at <www.pawprint.cornell.edu>.

PawprintFlash, an electronic message service, sends announcements of campus events to your e-mail address. To sign up, send an e-mail request to <pawprint@cornell.edu>.

Statler Club
The Statler Club offers to its members and a guest the use of the Statler Hotel’s Regent Lounge and an a la carte private dining room during the midday hours. Emeritus faculty are automatically members of the Club and do not pay dues. Memberships are also open to any retired member of the